WEEKLY OVERVIEW

This week, we've been having a lot of fun preparing for Valentine's Day with a variety of themed activities. From crafting heartfelt cards to decorating sweet treats, everyone has been getting into the spirit of the holiday. We've been focusing on spreading kindness and love through creative projects, and as a special treat to wrap up the week, we will be making delicious cookies to take home. It's going to be a wonderful week full of fun, and we can't wait to share our homemade goodies with friends and family!

JUNIOR

The preps are starting to settle in as everyone becomes more familiar with the different activities available. It's exciting to see everyone begin to explore and dive into the various Valentine's Day projects we have on offer.

SENIOR

The seniors have expressed a strong desire to play more sports and stay active, eagerly joining in on friendly games and physical activities. In addition, they've been enjoying the arts and crafts sessions, where they can tap into their creativity and make personalized projects.
